Your application for financial aid has been selected for a process called verification. This means that federal regulations require us to collect documents which confirm the accuracy of the information you provided on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Please read the instructions below and return this completed, signed statement to our office within 30 days of receipt of this request. Attach supporting documents if they are required.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The information requested below is necessary before you may receive any federal or state financial aid. Until verification is completed, no government-sponsored grants (such as the Federal Pell or Illinois Monetary Award Program Grants) will be released to your account; no Federal Stafford, Federal Perkins or Federal PLUS Loan applications will be processed, and no Federal Work-Study job may be assigned. Furthermore, the Office of College Aid will not be responsible for late fees incurred because verification was not completed in a timely manner.
